

Adjunct Professor Mr. Albert Cheung Delivered Guest Lectures to MAIA, MScPACG and MBA Students

Prof. Mo Lai Lan Phyllis invited the Adjunct Professor, Mr. Albert Cheung, to offer two guest lectures on auditors' risk assessment for MAIA and MScPACG students and common distortions in financial reporting for MBA students, which were held on 22 February and 25 February 2023 respectively. Likewise, Mr. Cheung was also previously invited by Prof. Yangyang Chen to offer a guest lecture on corporate governance, financial reporting and auditing issues in the Mainland and Hong Kong for MBA students which was held on 6 December 2022.

Mr. Cheung possesses extensive industry experience and knowledge regarding financial reporting and auditing. The students had a golden opportunity to attain additional knowledge and sharing of real-world experiences from Mr. Cheung to supplement their regular lectures.

The guest lectures were attended by a full house with active participation from students. The AC Department would like to thank Prof. Chen and Prof. Mo for the arrangement and Mr. Cheung for his generous sharing and support.

