

AC Hosts CPA Australia Delegate for Collaborative Discussions (15 September 2025)

23 SEPTEMBER 2025

The Department of Accountancy (AC) hosted a delegation from CPA Australia on 15 September 2025, marking a significant step in strengthening the partnership between the two institutions. The delegation comprised:

- Prof. Dale Pinto, President & Chair of the Board, CPA Australia
- Mr. Kevin Cheng, Regional Manager of Hong Kong, Macau, and Taiwan, CPA Australia
- Ms. Helen Cheung, Business Development, Hong Kong Team Leader, CPA Australia
- Ms. Cora Cheung, Senior Business Development Manager, CPA Australia

During the visit, Prof. Pinto discussed enhancements to qualification pathways and future educational focuses. These initiatives aim to address the evolving needs of both young professionals and employers, aligning with AC's commitment to nurturing future accounting leaders. Discussions were held to explore potential collaborative research opportunities.

The visit concluded with expressions of gratitude from both AC and CPA Australia for fostering this collaborative environment. Both parties expressed enthusiasm for continued dialogue and future engagements, looking forward to further strengthening their partnership in education and research.
