

Congratulations to Prof. Chen Yangyang for being listed as Stanford's Top 2% most highly cited scientists 2025!

20 NOVEMBER 2025

The Department of Accountancy is pleased to announce that Prof. Chen Yangyang, Head of Department, is listed as one of Stanford's Top 2% most highly cited scientists for 2025. The Stanford's list of top 2% most cited scientists in the world identifies scholars who have published multiple highly cited papers ranked according to various metrics on citation impact across multiple scientific fields and subfields based on Scopus data for career-long, and, separately, for single recent year impact. The selection is based on the top 100,000 scientists by c-score (with and without self-citations) or a percentile rank of 2% or above in the sub-field.
