The MAIA and MScPACG Programme Leaders, Prof. Zheng Liu and Prof. Stephen Sun, led information sessions on the structure, curriculum, assessment methods, and available resources of these programmes, while introducing the faculty and teaching team.

During the career-sharing sessions, representatives from the Career and Leadership Centre (CLC) and the Career and Student Enrichment Team from the College of Business presented the exclusive opportunities and activities available to support students in planning their career development. They also introduced the career guidance services, e-resources, career accelerators and workshops, and campus recruitment activities offered to our students.
