

College of Business Ph.D. Student Research Excellence Award 2024—Student Sharing by Qu Jinxing

24 MARCH 2025

My name is Qu Jinxing, and I am a Ph.D. student in the Department of Accountancy. I am deeply honored to receive the College of Business Ph.D. Student Research Excellence Award 2024. This recognition is not only a personal milestone but also a reflection of the unwavering support and guidance I have received throughout my studies at City University of Hong Kong.

First and foremost, I want to express my deepest gratitude to my supervisors, Prof. Kim Jeong Bon and Prof. Li Bing. Their invaluable guidance has sharpened my analytical thinking and helped me transform innovative ideas into well-structured research. The journey of research is filled with challenges—unexpected results, countless revisions, and the constant push to refine ideas. However, these obstacles are what make the process rewarding. As students, we must learn to embrace setbacks as opportunities for growth, remain resilient in the face of uncertainty, and remain passionate about the pursuit of knowledge.

Receiving this award is a significant source of encouragement. Thanks again to my supervisors, colleagues, and the College of Business for their invaluable support. I look forward to continuing this journey.
