

Seminar for Contemporary Business Issues for Accounting Professionals on 25 November 2017

Seminar Topic:

Hong Kong Tax Environment in the Post- Base erosion and profit shifting (BEPS) Era

The Department of Accountancy has invited Mr. Fergus Wong, FCCA to come to campus to conduct a professional seminar for our alumni and students!

Fergus has been in professional practice for many years and has served as the chairman of ACCA in 2014-15. He is now the tax director in one of the Big4 accounting firm.

With Fergus's rich experience in providing tax training and in-house tax technical support within accountancy professional firms, the Department believes all the participants can benefit from getting updates and the latest information on Hong Kong tax and international tax issues during the seminar.
