

Gather-to-gather with MAIA and MScPACG Graduates on 4 December 2018

The Alumni Gathering for the 2018 MAIA and MScPACG graduates was held on 4 December, 2018. About 30 MAIA and MScPACG alumni and current students attended this exciting reunion and had a wonderful time sharing their recent experiences and insights with their peers and instructors. Professor Kim Jeong Bon, Head of the Department, delivered the event's opening speech, in which he shared the recent development and rankings of the Department and addressed the significance of the alumni network. Dr. Guan Yuyan, Associate Head of the Department, and Dr. Wong Man Kong Raymond, Associate Dean of the College, also gave brief speeches in appreciation of the alumni's efforts to establish a strong network and expressed their anticipation of the alumni network's prosperous outlook. Moreover, the alumni representative, Fan Yunzhu, spoke about the important role the alumni network played in his career and life. Dr. Wang Zheng, programme leader of MScPACG; Dr. Zheng Liu, programme leader of MAIA; and four postgraduate instructors including Dr. Kwack So Yean, Mr. Ma K. W. Alfred, Dr. Xin Xiangang, and Dr. Zhang Zilong were also in attendance.

After the speeches, the alumni, students, and faculty enjoyed drinks and snacks while exchanging their thoughts and experiences. The Department will devote continuous efforts to create such special occasions to nurture the alumni network and to provide continuous support to students even after they graduate. The Department believes that the alumni network can help our graduates excel in their careers and serve as a solid base of dedicated ambassadors for CityU and the Department.

