

Second Prize in Philosophy and Social Sciences Outstanding Achievement Award (Jiangsu Province)

The Department of Accountancy is pleased that one of our published papers, titled “China’s Closed Pyramids Managerial Labor Market and the Stock Price Crash Risk,” was awarded second prize in the 16th Philosophy and Social Sciences Outstanding Achievement Award, initiated by the Jiangsu Provincial Government in December 2020. This is a respected honor in China that recognizes the contributions and efforts of dedicated researchers and scholars.

The paper was published in one of the top-tier journals in the field of accounting, The Accounting Review, and was coauthored by Professor Jeong-Bon Kim (Acting Dean of the College of Business & Chair Professor), Professor Donghua Chen (Nanjing University), Professor Oliver Zhen Li (National University of Singapore), and Professor Shangkun Liang (Central University of Finance and Economics).

Congratulations to Professors Kim, Chen, Li, and Liang on their achievements!
