

Discover Opportunities, Take Action, Be Grateful: My Unforgettable Undergraduate Journey

WANG Zheng, BBA in Accountancy, 2017 Cohort

My name is Zheng Wang, a recent graduate from the Department of Accountancy. Before coming to CityU, I earned my high school diploma in Ontario, Canada. Having graduated from CityU, I am now pursuing a Master's Degree in Finance at the University of Hong Kong.

CityU has been a home away from home for me. It is at CityU that I began to develop a sense of belonging in this busy city after spending years in the slower-paced lifestyle of Canada. I am extremely grateful for the knowledge and guidance I have received at CityU over the past four years.

The academic curriculum has prepared me for the QP exams and to become a CPA. Every course offered by the AC provides students with a solid foundation for tackling professional modules. I still review the course materials when preparing for the exams. Last July, I was honored to receive a QP Scholarship from HKICPA. I could not have done it without CityU.

In addition to academic support, CityU offers many opportunities for students to explore their interests. I participated in a number of seminars and workshops on career training, which provided insight into specific industries. I was nominated by the department to intern at Deloitte, and I also had the opportunity to intern at Tencent and Goldman Sachs. CityU works to help students succeed in every aspect, and all of these experiences have been invaluable.

I also participated in many programs and events at CityU. Two of the most meaningful were the Young Scholars Programme (YSP) organized by College of Business (CB) and the Executive Mentoring Programme (EMP) organized by Student Development Services (SDS). Through YSP, I met many great friends with whom I am still in contact. I also met my lifelong friend and mentor, Fergus Wong, in the EMP program. He is always happy to help and to share everything he knows.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Raymond Wong, Sunny Wong and Fergus Wong for their generous support along my journey. I could not have made it without these lovely people!

Thank you, CityU! I wish you all the best!
