

City University of Hong Kong Wins CIMA Excellence Award

The Department of Accountancy is pleased to announce that the City University of Hong Kong won a Global Silver for the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants® (CIMA®) Prize-Winner Excellence Award, Top Student in Strategic Case Study Exam February 2021 (joint) at the second annual CIMA Excellence Awards virtual ceremony on 10 December 2021. This award recognizes university partners with top-performing CIMA students in Case Study exams.

Sponsored by the Association of International Certified Professional Accountants, the global accounting organization representing CIMA and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the annual CIMA Excellence Awards recognizes institutions and individuals across the world who go above and beyond in shaping the next generation of Chartered Global Management Accountants and leading the accounting profession into the future.

Andrew Harding, FCMA, CGMA, Chief Executive—Management Accounting at The Chartered Institute of Management Accounting, said, “It is an honor to recognize and celebrate those who have demonstrated remarkable commitment to their students and the accounting profession in the past year. All our winners and nominees are doing incredible work to help future generations realize their potential and give their career a head start. We are proud to call you our partners and truly appreciate your support.”

More than 400 nominations from educational institutions and individuals were submitted this year for consideration for the CIMA Teaching Excellence Award, CIMA Research Excellence Award, CIMA Campus Culture Excellence Award and CIMA Employability Excellence Award. In addition, a central award committee selected the winners of the CIMA Prize-Winner Excellence Award, CIMA Global Excellence Award and CGMA Campus of the Year Award based on CIMA exam performance in 2020 and 2021.
