

2022 Summer Research Workshop of China Journal of Accounting Research on 2 July 2022

The 2022 Summer Research Workshop of the China Journal of Accounting Research (CJAR) was successfully held online on 2 July 2022. This workshop was co-organised by the City University of Hong Kong, Sun Yat-sen University and the Centre for Accounting Studies of Xiamen University.

Professor Frank Zhang (Yale University) presented the first keynote speech titled “Winning is not enough: Changing landscapes of earnings surprises and the market reaction”.

The second keynote speaker, Professor Zhiming Ma (Peking University), delivered a speech titled “Financial benefits of joining standards setting organizations”.

Nine papers were presented in the subsequent four sessions on various themes, including the capital markets, innovation, state-owned enterprises and tax. The sessions were moderated by Professor Chaopeng Wu (Xiamen University), Professor Dongmin Kong (Zhongnan University of Economics and Law), Professor Jian Xue (Tsinghua University) and Professor Ziyang Fan (Shanghai University of Finance and Economics). Each paper was discussed by a professor from the City University of Hong Kong.

Professor Hang Liu from the Dongbei University of Finance and Economics and PhD student Yitong Zhao won the award for best paper for their study titled “Spillover effect of supervision attribute of VAT – Evidence based on the business tax replaced with VAT reform”.

