Morgan Stanley Asia Insights for Non-Finance Majors

Calling all non-finance majors – from science, technology, engineering, mathematics, law, arts, healthcare, to interdisciplinary programs and more – we are inviting students who are interested in learning more about a career in finance to join us in our virtual workshops. Explore how diverse perspectives are valued at Morgan Stanley and how your non-finance skills can help you excel in roles within Sales & Trading and Investment Banking Divisions.

Pathways into Sales & Trading

Morgan Stanley provides expertise in sales, trading and market-making services to global institutions, leading hedge funds and industry innovators. Join this virtual interactive educational event, ran in partnership with our training partner AmplifyME, to participate in a simulated competition – participants will play the roles of sales, trader, and fund manager, gaining valuable insights into what it might be like to work in these areas.

Top performers will receive a potential fast track opportunity in their 2025 internship applications, exclusive coffee chats with Morgan Stanley Asia representatives, and ongoing career support and guidance from the Campus Recruitment Team.

Pathways into Investment Banking

Learn how non-finance skills can be valuable to a career in Investment Banking with Morgan Stanley. Join us for this virtual interactive session to network with business representatives from similar non-finance backgrounds and learn about the day-to-day tasks in the Investment Banking Division.

Attend the “Investment Banking 101” introductory session conducted by our global training partner, Financial Edge, to understand how different business units work together to drive impact at an investment bank.

Top students may receive a potential fast track opportunity in the 2025 internship applications.

Target Audiences

University students graduating between October 2025 and July 2026 from non-finance majors.
