WE ARE
Morgan Stanley

Morgan Stanley Tech X Challenge (Hong Kong)

At Morgan Stanley, our world-class technologists recognize the power of collaboration. By combining their individual talents to solve complex client and business problems, the partnership with technology helps to drive Morgan Stanley's leading position in the global financial industry.

We invite students to X-perience Morgan Stanley Technology first-hand and X-ccelerate the start of their career journey by joining our Tech X Challenge!

X-perience

Work in a team to experience how your combined skills can be applied to solve four challenges designed by our Asia technologists. After completing all challenges, the winning teams will be announced!

Teams will be pre-allocated to ensure diversity of skill sets and backgrounds.

The Challenges

Application Development

Problem solving and coding challenge.

Cyber Security

Security analysis challenge.

Enterprise Engineering

Design and innovation challenge.

Client Focus

Client-facing and innovative thinking challenge.
