

Mr. Edmond LAU

Fintech Investor, Advisor, Scholar

Edmond Lau has 20 years of profound experience in investment, financing and business development, and is currently the Co-founder and CFO of Babel Capital focusing on fintech and digital assets. He was the Managing Director of Lingfeng Capital, Head of Innovative Incubation Centre/ Head of Merger & Integration in SF-Express responsible for fintech and logistic tech investments. Prior to that, he served as the Head of Investment in FIH Mobile and the Investment Director in CLSA Capital Partners focusing on artificial intelligence, mobile Internet, and water technologies. Edmond was previously a Vice President in Citigroup and a senior consultant in Accenture providing financing solutions and strategic advices to telecom, media and technology corporations.

Edmond holds an MBA (distinction, Dean's list) from London Business School, a Bachelor of Information Engineering (first class) from Chinese University of Hong Kong, and a Bachelor of Laws from China University of Political Science and Law. Edmond is devoted to technology development and is often invited to be a guest speaker/ panelist at prominent tech functions, such as Hong Kong Fintech Week, Tencent Greater Bay Area Fintech Forum, CFA China Investment Summit, Fintech Forum at The Macao Institute of Financial Services and Cyberport VC Forum. He is the founding board member of CFA Shenzhen Association, Co-President of Hong Kong Internet Finance Association, board member of Hong Kong Business Angel Network, and a former board member of Hong Kong Society of Financial Analysts. Edmond is a member of Entrepreneurship Committee Advisory Group of Hong Kong Cyberport, and teaches tech and investment courses in Universities. Edmond is also a CFA, a FRM and a Chevening scholar.

Contact: yipmlau@cityu.edu.hk, edmond.lau@babel.capital