Details of the Summer Exchange Programme are as follows-

- * Students must meet the language requirements, if any
- * The programme is credit-bearing and credit-transferable and students may transfer a max. of two courses towards their BBA/BSc programme;
- * The programme is covered by a formal exchange agreement signed between CityUHK and a non-local partner institution;
- * Students who are accepted to study in this summer exchange will not be considered for the application of semester-long exchange study in the coming semesters/years;

- * Students must not be in their final semester while on exchange (because you cannot be graduating in summer 2026);
- * Tuition fee is mutually waived;
- * Students will receive subsidy from the Student Exchange Fund or Special Fund. Details of the exchange fund are available on GEO's webpage (i.e. $12,000 for local students or $5,000 for non-local students)
- * No interview is required;
- * Announcement of result will be 24 February 2026.
