

Shanghai, China
29 – 30 March 2012

Organized by:

- China Journal of Accounting Research (CJAR)
- China Europe International Business School (CEIBS)
- Hautes études commerciales de Paris (HEC Paris)

Sponsored by:

Call For Participants

Special Issue Symposium for China Journal of Accounting Research

Large Shareholders, Corporate Governance and Accounting

This symposium intends to bring researchers from all over the world together to explore different aspects of large shareholders and their impact on corporate governance and accounting..

We will entertain a wide range of topics for this symposium. Possible topics could include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Large shareholders and firm value
- Large shareholders and tunneling
- Large shareholders and IPOs
- Large shareholders and earnings management
- Large shareholders, financial communication and transparency
- Large shareholders and minority shareholders
- Large shareholders and boards

CJAR

China Journal of Accounting Research (CJAR) was founded by Sun Yat-sen University, China and City University of Hong Kong in 2008. Published by LexisNexis (2008-10) and Elsevier (from 2011), CJAR aims to publish theoretical and empirical research that uses contemporary research methodology to investigate issues about accounting, finance, auditing and corporate governance in China and other markets. Researchers from the U.S., Canada, U.K., Australia, Hong Kong, Taiwan and China have made contributions to CJAR by actively participating in conferences organized by the Journal and by submitting their papers to the Journal. Currently, Professor Wei Minghai from Sun Yat-sen University, China and Professor Jeong-Bon Kim from City University of Hong Kong serve as co-editors of CJAR.

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME HIGHLIGHTS

Keynote Speaker

Professor Katherine Schipper from Duke University
Professor Ole-Kristian Hope from University of Toronto, Canada

Registration

Registration Fee: RMB$800

HOTEL ACCOMMODATION INFORMATION

Hotel accommodation can be arranged through the Organization Committee. We are currently negotiating special accommodation rates at Ramada Plaza Pudong (上海浦东华美达大酒店) in Shanghai for participants of the Special Issue Symposium for CJAR. The accommodation at the hotel is expected to cost RMB$600 – RMB$750.

For Conference Registration

Please Contact: Miss Sally Liu via email: china.jar@gmail.com
Mrs. Irene Li via email: acwoo@cityu.edu.hk
Miss Yvonne Yuan via email: yvonne@ceibs.edu